Word Problems (Multiplication & Division)

Solve the following word problems.

1. There are 25 blue balloons and 15 red balloons at a party. Five children are given an equal number of each color balloon. How many blue balloons and how many red balloons does each child get?

2. Twenty-seven pears are packed in bags of 3. Five bags of pears are sold. How many pears are sold?

3. The teacher has 30 apple slices and 20 pear slices. Five children equally share all of the fruit slices. How many fruit slices does each child get?

Word Problems (Multiplication & Division)

Solve the following word problems.

1. There are 25 blue balloons and 15 red balloons at a party. Five children are given an equal number of each color balloon. How many blue balloons and how many red balloons does each child get?

5 blue balloons and 3 red balloons

2. Twenty-seven pears are packed in bags of 3. Five bags of pears are sold. How many pears are sold?

15 pears

3. The teacher has 30 apple slices and 20 pear slices. Five children equally share all of the fruit slices. How many fruit slices does each child get?

10 slices